Cal Poly Athletics to Begin Baggett Stadium Enhancement Project
Cal Poly Athletics has received the green light to begin architectural design work and secure contractors’ bids for the Baggett Stadium Enhancement Project. Athletics has garnered $4 million in pledges toward the $6 million project. Phase I will be a two-story clubhouse, including an expanded locker room, state-of-the-art athletic training and physical therapy room, a lounge/study area, a dressing room for umpires, coaches’ offices, a conference room, the Founders Pavilion and the Legends Lobby entrance. The renovation will include installation of permanent seating to replace temporary bleachers, raising the capacity of Baggett Stadium to more than 3,250 seats. Construction crews are scheduled to break ground following the 2016 baseball season. The team will use temporary locker facilities until the project is completed. Completion is anticipated prior to fall 2017. For more information, go to calpoly.com/sports/bsb/2014-15/releases/20150521vp10ke.
