Cal Poly Receives One of the Largest Land Donations in Its 114-Year History

A Santa Maria couple has made the commitment to donate a 450-acre avocado and lemon ranch in southern San Luis Obispo County valued at $11.3 million — one of the largest private land donations in the university’s history. Stuart “Stu” and Jan Bartleson and President Armstrong made the announcement at a press conference held at the ranch on Los Berros Road, three miles south of Arroyo Grande. The donation will vastly expand the 11 acres of lemons and 15 acres of avocados already growing on campus. Both crops are used to enhance students’ educational experience. The new ranch has 104 acres of avocados and 131 acres of lemons. Stu moved to Santa Maria in 1958, and with his partner, Slim Minor, developed housing developments and shopping centers in the area and throughout the state. Jan moved to Santa Maria in 1978. She was a real estate broker and a partner in the Point Sal Dunes project in Guadalupe. She co-developed Casa la Cañada in Lompoc, Bakersfield, Paso Robles and San Bernardino.
