Cal Poly Students Honored at State Capitol

Nineteen Cal Poly students who have received state and national awards and other honors were recognized for their accomplishments by state lawmakers at the Capitol in Sacramento on March 9. The group was introduced on the floors of the Senate and Assembly by local representatives Assemblyman Katcho Achadjian and Senate Majority Leader Bill Monning. In addition, the students met with Lt. Gov. Gavin Newsom. They also met with family, friends and alumni at two receptions in the Sacramento area March 8-9. State lawmakers also honored Philip Bailey, longtime faculty member and the dean of the College of Science & Mathematics since 1983. Bailey received a joint Senate-Assembly resolution for his nearly 50 years of service to Cal Poly. For more information, go to calpolynews.calpoly.edu.

Cal Poly Named a Tree Campus USA; Arbor Day Observance set for March 13

Cal Poly has been recognized as a Tree Campus USA, a national program created by the Arbor Day Foundation to honor colleges and universities for effective campus forest management and for engaging staff and students in conservation goals. Cal Poly achieved the title by meeting five standards, which include maintaining a tree advisory committee, a campus tree-care plan, and dedicated annual expenditures for a campus tree program, and having an Arbor Day observance and a student service-learning project. Facilities will host an event to observe California's Arbor Day at 10 a.m. Friday, March 13, near the southeast corner of the Mathematics & Science Building (No. 38), near Via Carta. A pair of redwoods, the state tree, will be planted. For more information on the Tree Campus USA designation, go to afd.calpoly.edu/facilities/services_treecampususa.asp.

Annual Al Smith Day Celebration set for April 12 at Swanton Pacific Ranch

The annual Al Smith Day celebration will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday, April 12, at Cal Poly's Swanton Pacific Ranch in Davenport, Calif., 10 miles north of Santa Cruz. There will be train rides, tours and demonstrations of the ranch facilities, and a Santa Maria-style barbecue. Attendees will be able to ride the Swanton Pacific Railroad. The one-third scale, steam-powered train will offer free rides from 10:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The barbecue lunch will be served around noon. The event honors College of Agriculture alumnus Al Smith, who left the 3,200-acre, $20 million Swanton Pacific Ranch to Cal Poly when he died in 1993. The ranch serves as an extension of Cal Poly's instructional programs in agriculture, forestry and other disciplines. Tickets include the barbecue and unlimited train rides. The event sells out every year. Prior to April 2, the cost is $25 for adults; $15 for youth (4 to 10 years); children 3 and under are free. After April 2, the cost is $35 for adults; $20 for youth. For more information, contact Ed Carnegie at 805-995-3659 or ecarnegi@calpoly.edu.
