Mustang News to Celebrate 100th Anniversary Bringing News to Campus
Mustang News’ commemorative 100th Anniversary Edition will be published Thursday, April 14. Started in 1916 as the Polygram, the newspaper has also been known as the Polytechnic Californian, El Mustang and Mustang Daily before becoming Mustang News in 2014. Over the past century, students from all colleges and many majors have helped deliver the campus news. The campus community is invited to acknowledge the accomplishments of faculty, staff and students in this special edition. For information, contact Paul Bittick at ext. 6-2537 or pbittick@calpoly.edu.

Tickets Available for Al Smith Day at Swanton Pacific Ranch
The annual Al Smith Day celebration will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday, April 24, at the Swanton Pacific Ranch in Davenport, Calif., 10 miles north of Santa Cruz. Attendees will have the chance to ride the historic one-third scale, steam-powered trains; tour the facilities; and hear updates on railroad activities and plans, all while a live band plays. A Santa Maria-style barbecue lunch will be served at noon. The event honors alumnus Al Smith, who donated the 3,200-acre ranch to Cal Poly when he died in 1993. Tickets include the barbecue lunch and unlimited train rides. Prices are $15 for children and $25 for adults, prior to April 13. To register, call the CAFES’ dean’s office at ext. 6-2161.
