NASA Team Leader to Discuss Missions on April 12

Fran Bagenal, a team leader on NASA's New Horizons mission to Pluto and a working group chair for the Juno mission to Jupiter, will share discoveries about these worlds at 7 p.m. Wednesday, April 12, in Spanos Theatre. The talk is free and open to the public. The two missions are among the most exciting in space exploration. Bagenal, a research scientist and professor at the University of Colorado, Boulder, will speak about how New Horizons came to be, how the spacecraft got to Pluto, and how the findings challenge the current understanding of ice worlds in the outer solar system. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

In Memoriam

Arlene Chandler, founder of Week of Welcome, died April 4. Chandler, 94, was born in rural Wisconsin to Eleanor and Rueben Bahr. She moved to San Luis Obispo in 1960, as a young widow with two sons, for a job at Cal Poly as student activities advisor. One of Chandler's first accomplishments at Cal Poly was the creation of WOW, a student orientation program that continues today. She advanced to the position of dean of women in 1962 and joined the first teaching staff at Cuesta College in 1965, retiring after 31 years. She is survived by her husband, Everett Chandler, of 53 years. The couple has been dedicated Mustang fans, rarely missing a basketball or football game in decades. In 2009, Cal Poly surprised Arlene Chandler with the University Honored Alumni Award for Education at its Homecoming. In 2012, she and Everett were honored with the dedication of the Quiet Study Room at the University Union as the "Chandler Room," recognizing their many years of support. Arlene Chandler is survived by her sons, Mark J. Chandler (Carolyn Tavares) and Bret A. Chandler (Junko); three step-children, Alan Chandler (Judy Redmond), Ann Chandler (Joe Mikulsky) and Marge Chandler (Jim Archambeault); granddaughter, Lea Chandler; and two step-grandsons, Nick Mikulsky (Elizabeth Lucas) and Greg Mikulsky. She was preceded in death by her first husband, Harold Vokoun, who died of a heart attack at age 39. A celebration of her life is forthcoming. Contributions be made to the Community Counseling Center at www.cccslo.com or 805-543-7969.

Wilma Gene Pierce, 91, died March 22. She was born in Indiana in December 1925 to Riley Hart Manning and Mary Olive Charles Manning. Pierce moved to San Luis Obispo in 1949. She worked at the Cal Poly Foundation Business Office for 18 years, retiring at the age of 62. She was an avid bowler and was a part of the Woman's Major League bowling on the Burke Construction Team. Pierce is survived by her son Ray Pierce (Peggy) of Hollister; daughter Patti Pierce-Choban of Paso Robles; grandchildren: Lisa (Mark), Danylle (Robert), Nathan (Sara), Caitlin and Caleb; and great-grandchildren Amy, Zack, Robbie and Lane. She is preceded in death by her son Eddie Paul; her father; mother; and sisters Pauline, Carrie and Pat. No formal services are planned.
