Fundraiser Set Up for Emeritus Staff Member Who Lost Home in Fire

Lisa Bruce, a financial aid counselor who retired from Cal Poly on June 1, and her husband, Mickey, a retired Caltrans employee, lost their home in the Hill Fire in the Santa Margarita area in late June. A GoFundMe account has been set up to benefit the Bruces, whose house was one of four homes destroyed in the fire east of the town of Santa Margarita. The fire burned an estimated 1,600 acres. Lisa Bruce, a Cal Poly alumna who worked for the university for 16 years, said the family is still missing two pets. Learn more at <https://www.gofundme.com/lisa-mickey-bruce>.

Retirements

Brent Mooney retired June 30 from Cal Poly Corporation after 33 years of service. Mooney began his career with the Cal Poly Foundation (now Cal Poly Corporation) in 1984 as a Warehouse Specialist for Food Service (now Campus Dining). In 2003, Mooney was promoted to Warehouse Unit Manager where he maintained receiving, warehousing and distribution operations. Mooney said of his retirement, "I won't miss the hectic pace, seemingly impossible demands or the many frustrations. But I will miss the many fine people and great friends I have gained." His retirement plans include some traveling, home and vehicle projects, riding bikes, backpacking and motorcycling. He also plans to spend more time with his wife and to volunteer for a variety of community projects and his church.
