Retirements

George L. Leone, senior shop technician for the Mechanical Engineering Department, will retire on July 21 after 16 years at Cal Poly. His service to students first began, however, as a volunteer mentor to the Human Powered Vehicle (HPV) team. Leone received the Cal Poly Outstanding Staff Award in 2009 and the 2016 Don and Paula Heye Annual Safety Award. As supervising director of the Hangar Shop, Leone has implemented best practices for all tools used, and he oversees the safety training required of all student technicians and shop users, including a required safety tour, tests and tool checkout program. A celebration in his honor will be held from 5 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, June 20, at the Milestone Tavern at 972 Foothill Blvd. in San Luis Obispo.

Dan Inlow, an information technology consultant with Information Technology Services, will retire on June 19. For the past 21 years, Inlow has helped support more than 150 classrooms and has been involved in a number of technology upgrades that have positively impacted teaching and learning campuswide. He has also supervised and mentored countless students. In retirement, Inlow looks forward to spending more time with his family, enjoying the outdoors, traveling internationally, and working on his fleet of trucks, motorcycles and boats.
